- The Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa These tombs were tunneled into the bedrock in the age of the Antioine emperors (2nd century A.D.) for a single wealthy family that were still practicing the ancient religion. These tombs represent the last existing major construction for the sake of the old Egyptian religion.
- The Roman Theater (Kom Al-Dikka) Over 30 years of excavation have uncovered many Roman remains including this well-preserved theatre with galleries, sections of mosaic-flooring and marble seats for up to 800 spectators. The theatre at one point may have been roofed over to serve as an Odeon for musical performances. Inscriptions suggest that it was sometimes also used for wrestling contests.
- Back to Cairo. Overnight in Cairo.

Jan 22 Fri St Catherine

- After breakfast, transfer to Sinai to visit the village of St. Catherine. It has been called the oldest working Christian monastery and the smallest diocese in the world. The Chapel of the Burning Bush was originally ordered built by Empress Helen, the mother of Constantine the Great, but the monastery itself was actually built by Emperor Justinian to protect the monks in the region and to honor the site of the Burning Bush. St. Catherine, whose body was reportedly carried away by angels, was discovered five hundred years later at the top of the peak that now bears her name. Her relics are stored in a marble reliquary in the Basilica.
- Dinner and sleep for a few hours.

Jan 23 Sat Mt Sinai - Cairo
