ITALY

APRIL 27 - MAY 7, 2024

Join Furman friends and alumni as we retrace the Italian campaign of World War II from Sicily to Rome on an 11-day adventure through southern Italy. Not as well-known as the Normandy invasion, the Allied crossing into the "soft" underbelly of Europe was instrumental in the war effort. Airborne landings, beach assaults, and urban slugfests were all on the menu for this theater of operations. We will explore the Allied advance, visit the Valley of the Temples, Vesuvius, Pompeii, and Herculaneum, a battlefield tour of Monte Cassino, Anzio and tour sites of ancient Rome. LTC William Price (a former member of the Department of Military Science) and his wife, Dr. Sarah Worth (Professor of Philosophy and Foodie extraordinaire) will be your guides on this fun and delicious tour of Italian history.
