

PAULINE IMMERSION IN TÜRKIYE & GREECE

“IN SEARCH OF PAUL”

April 6-22, 2027

a first century immersion for rostered leaders and inquiring disciples exploring Paul’s letters in their religious and socio-political contexts

The Rev. Dr. Don Carlson, Host

In partnership with TUTKU EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL

NARRATIVE ITINERARY

TUESDAY, APRIL 6

Fly out of a Turkish Airlines hub; direct flight to Istanbul. (See list of cities on Page 4.) Tutku Tours can arrange departures via from other cities at additional cost. You can also remit “land only” and book your own flights.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7—TÜRKIYE

Arrive in Istanbul, meet our guide for Türkiye, Cenk Eronat, and travel to our hotel located along the Golden Horn. Dinner together and introductions in the hotel dining room.

THURSDAY, APRIL 8—TÜRKIYE

We start at Istanbul where we glimpse the “imperial church” of the early 4th century under Constantine. We visit the hippodrome, Hagia Sophia, Hagia Irene, Blue Mosque, and the Topkapi Palace.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9—TÜRKIYE/GREECE

We depart early for the Greek border, meet our guide for Greece, and then travel to Philippi. We visit the traditional river site where Paul met Lydia and see the magnificent baptistery built there. At the river we discuss Paul’s letter to Philemon and its patronage subtext. 1st century city life then emerges in the ruins of ancient Philippi. Overnight in Kavala, modern Neapolis.

SATURDAY, APRIL 10—GREECE

We get another glimpse of the Via Egnatia that Paul walked from Neapolis to Philippi, then on to Thessaloniki where we see the Roman forum, the arch and mausoleum of Galerius, and the archeological museum. At Virginia, we stop at the tomb of Phillip II of Macedon, father of Alexander the Great, to appreciate the roots of imperial theology. Overnight at Kalambaka/Meteora.

SUNDAY, APRIL 11—GREECE

Visit Varlaam Monastery, built 1541, high atop the rocks of Meteora; reflecting upon the medieval theological worldview of its art. After a traditional lunch, we later discuss Philippians and celebrate the Eucharist. Overnight at Kalambaka.

MONDAY, APRIL 12—GREECE

We stop at a studio where icons are hand crafted and can be purchased, then go Delphi to explore the cult of Apollo. After visiting the archeological museum, we overnight in Delphi; taking a look at Galatians after dinner.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13—GREECE

In Athens, we visit the Areopagus where Paul delivered his sermon about “an unknown God” and then climb the acropolis to see the temples of Athena, Nike, Poseidon, and Augustus. There will then be free time to visit the new archeological museum or to have a leisurely meal “al fresco.”

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14—GREECE

We visit the site of ancient Corinth with its excellent ruins and museum. While on the grounds, seated in view of the Temple of Apollo and the ancient meat market (1 Cor. 8), we discuss 1st Corinthians. After lunch we head for the port of Athens, say “Goodbye” to Voula Kalapoda, and board our 6:00 PM ferry to Patmos. Good dining aboard and cabins with clean linens and bath. Arrive in Patmos about 2:00 AM, go to our hotel and go back to bed!

THURSDAY, APRIL 15—GREECE/TÜRKIYE

Still in Greece, we will visit the traditional “Cave of St. John,” reflect upon the imperial context of Revelation, and visit the Monastery of St. John. Lunch will be by the seaport and then we take a leisurely 4-hour boat ride to the Turkish port of Kusadasi. At Kusadasi we meet up with Cenk Eronat and go to our hotel.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16—TÜRKIYE

We now enter the area of the Seven Churches of Revelation; visiting five of the sites: Ephesus, Sardis, Smyrna (Izmir), Laodicea, and Pergamon.

The ancient city of Ephesus gives the most impressive glimpse of 1st century urban life. The Library of Celsus, Temple of Artemis (one of the 7 wonders of the ancient world), Temple of Hadrian, Temple of Domitian, and the “terrace houses” are but a few of the restorations. After a locally prepared lunch we will visit a “cottage industry” outlet to see how Turkish carpets are made; with an opportunity to purchase carpets! Overnight at Kusadasi.

SATURDAY, APRIL 17—TÜRKIYE

Leaving Kusadasi, we will see the magnificent Temple of Apollo at Didyma, Asian counterpart to Delphi—complete with oracle. There we will discuss 1st Thessalonians. Then on to Aphrodisias with the Temple of Aphrodite, the Sebasteion (the best example of Roman imperial theology), monumental gateway, stadium, and museum—where “the god fearers” are mentioned. Overnight at a relaxing thermal spa hotel at Pamukkale.

SUNDAY, APRIL 18—TÜRKIYE

At Hierapolis we see the tomb of Philip the Apostle (?) and the thermal springs, then journey to Laodicea with its many newly excavated and restored ruins; including a magnificent 4th century church. After a scenic drive, we will arrive at Izmir (ancient Smyrna) and have dinner on the waterfront. Overnight in Izmir.

MONDAY, APRIL 19—TÜRKIYE

We head for the acropolis of Pergamon with its great theater and temples to Athena, Zeus, and Trajan; then visit the Asklepeion, a center of healing where the great physician Galen practiced. Overnight at the picturesque seaport of Assos. Eucharist before turning in.

TUESDAY, APRIL 20—TÜRKIYE

We climb the acropolis of Assos that has a temple to Athena dating from 530 BCE, then head to Troas (Acts 20) and walk a road that Paul walked. In the evening we discuss Romans. Overnight in Assos.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21—TÜRKIYE

After a visit to Troy, founded 3000-2600 BCE, we cross the Dardanelles and drive through the area where the Battle of Gallipoli was fought in WWI. Arriving back in Istanbul, we visit the Spice Market before going to the hotel to enjoy our farewell dinner.

THURSDAY, APRIL 22—TÜRKIYE

After a leisurely morning and breakfast, we leave for the airport and our flights home.

NOTE: There may be unforeseen minor adjustments to the itinerary.

FOR THE MIND AND THE SPIRIT

WHY SEARCH FOR PAUL?

"After 11 trips, haven't you found Paul yet?" The truth is that every trip brings newly found insights about the Paul we thought we knew. And another truth is that the real Paul is often lost: clouded by ignorance about Paul's cultural and religious context, and therefore often misconstrued amid sectarian arguments and "culture wars."

Contemporary Biblical scholars often list four "Pauls" —

- The Paul of the autograph letters: Philemon, 1 Thessalonians, Philippians, 1 Corinthians, 2 Corinthians, Galatians, and Romans.
- The "Paul" of Ephesians, Colossians, and 2 Thessalonians.
- The "Paul" of the pastorals: 1 & 2 Timothy and Titus.
- The "traditional Paul" of Acts.

Lutherans and other churches may also have a "fifth Paul" - the "Reformation Paul" of the 16th century.

But, how did the "real Paul" of the 1st century understand justice, righteousness, salvation, faith, and the gospel as he wrote to diverse urban people living in a culture permeated with religion, patronage, classism, plutocracy, oligarchy, and Roman Imperial Theology? How can his gospel's 1st century context inform our 21st century context? These are but some of the issues we explore together on every trip.

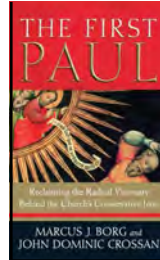

Participants commit to advance preparation so there will be common ground for group learning and discussion.

- Read the essential books on the group learning list, and some brief articles that will be shared electronically.
- Take part in three pre-trip orientation and discussion ZOOM meetings in January, February, and March.

So, come along and seek the life and faith of the early church. Come along and search for Paul!

GROUP LEARNING

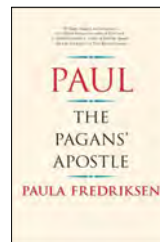

ESSENTIAL READING for January 2027 ZOOM

The First Paul (Kindle available)

The book explores the widely accepted view that the later "letters of Paul" were created by the early church to dilute his message and make him more traditional to fit Roman norms in regards to slavery, patriarchy, and patronage. In truth, Paul was an apostle whose vision of life "in Christ" is faithful to the message of Jesus.

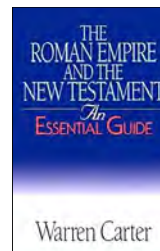

ESSENTIAL READING for February 2027 ZOOM

Paul—The Pagans' Apostle (Kindle available)

Only by situating Paul within his charged social context of gods and humans, pagans and Jews, cities, synagogues, and competing Christ-following assemblies can we begin to understand his mission and message. The book offers a dramatically new perspective on one of history's pivotal figures.

ESSENTIAL READING for March 2027 ZOOM

The Roman Empire and the New Testament (Kindle available)

Understanding the New Testament texts is enhanced by appreciating the political, economic, societal, cultural, and religious aspects of Roman rule. This book will help us to appreciate how structures and practices in the Roman world illumine the New Testament message.

Friends in Christ,

This picture of me was taken during our discussion of 1st Corinthians while gathered in the forum of ancient Corinth. That evening we sailed for Patmos; then back into Türkiye. Ephesus and many other sites and discussions awaited us. 2027 will be our 12th journey.

I increasingly appreciate the observation of N.T. Wright, "For too long we've read the scriptures with 19th century eyes and 16th century questions. It's time we get back to reading with 1st century eyes and 21st century questions."

In many ways, our 21st century is not unlike the 1st century. In no other period of my lifetime could a 1st century understanding of Paul be more relevant: his gospel in the context of empire; his vision of the just world Christ's return would usher in; his alternative Christ communities negotiating the imperial meantime. Come along on this historical, cultural, and theological immersion. Full info at <https://leadconnects.org/in-search-of-paul-2027/>

Friends,

For years, I had heard about Don Carlson's LEAD trip to Türkiye/ Greece, "In Search of Paul". For years, my reaction always included a heavy sigh and thoughts along the lines of blessings to those who go...because I struggled with Paul and "his" wordy, circular, and at times judgey writings.

There. I said it. You no longer have to feel alone about your own thoughts about Paul. He is a difficult read.

It was my husband who convinced me to go "In Search of Paul". He had heard about the trip for years as well; he was curious; and he thought it would be great if both of us went on it. And so, I had to learn how to shift from being judgey about Paul to learning how to be open...to learning more about Paul.

Don does a great job helping everyone - no matter how one feels about Paul - to learn more about the historical Paul and the world/culture in which he lived. There were books to read, Zoom sessions with others going on the journey, and discussions about the readings. In fact, I remember commenting in one of the last discussions on Zoom that I really felt that the readings deconstructed all that I had thought I knew about Paul...and that I was hoping that the trip would help put things back together amidst the ruins.

Spoiler Alert! There was more deconstruction about Paul to be done among the ruins. And, I found myself both letting go of what I had once thought about Paul while gaining new understanding about him at the same time in the midst of those ruins.

What I saw, experienced, and heard has forever changed the way that I read and understand the writings of Paul. To have stood amidst the ruins of his times, to have gained more understanding about his culture and the world and world powers that were in place almost 2,000 years ago, to hear the scriptures/letters read in the very places they were sent, to be aware of the "ruins" of my own spiritual growth, to share all of this in conversations and Bible studies with a group of people just as curious as myself, to experience the food and cultures of modern day Türkiye and Greece, and to have Don and his counterparts—I can tell you that this is a journey well worth taking.

Whether you are a "fan" of Paul OR one who struggled with him like I did, this experience, this invitation, to go "In Search of Paul" is for you. This is not a leave your Bible at home kind of trip. It is a bring it with you and walk around in what you have read in your Bibles for years...and never fully appreciated.

From Paul's letter to the Romans - "For I am longing to see you so that I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you - or rather so that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine." (Romans 1:11-12 NRSV)

For those of us who are or who have been "In Search of Paul", there is something gained, something that both challenges and strengthens faith. And when done with intentionality, as Don does on this journey, one finds (and offers) encouragement within the group, resulting in the transformation of hearts and minds.

MORE PARTICIPANT PERSPECTIVES

Learning about the cultures and the class structures within Paul's communities was helpful for me in understanding his 1st century ministry and how it is relevant today. The trip exceeded my expectations and I built lasting friendships.

Susan Keene
Member at Messiah Lutheran, Houston, TX

The trip equipped me to counter people who misuse Paul to silence women in the church — and his letters have become alive to me. The readings and discussions helped me understand Paul's context.

The Rev. Mytch Pierre-Noel Dorvilier
ELCA YAGM Coordinator, Darka, Senegal

Searching for Paul introduced to me a Paul I never knew. It was a transforming experience to understand the 1st century and begin to grasp what that means for teaching and preaching Paul's letters today.

The Rev. Solomon Hailu
Sharp Hospice Care, San Diego, CA

I knew Paul and Empire in my head, but to travel the roads he walked brought a new depth and nuance to my understanding. Now I can more competently and confidently connect our tradition of church and culture in my preaching, teaching, and advocacy.

The Rev. Ashley Bathe
St. Stephen's Episcopal, Houston, TX

"In Search of Paul" enabled me to experience the places the context of the communities Paul created. I now have much greater understanding of his letters and would recommend this opportunity to anyone.

The Rev. Rudy Flores
Messiah Lutheran, Aurora, KS

Walking around Washington, I see architecture similar to what I saw while searching for Paul; a continuation of empires. I now have new perspectives on the Book of Acts; challenging how I show up in ministry.

The Rev. Tuhina Rasche
Faith in Public Life, Washington, DC

My ministry is forever changed by this pilgrimage that vividly captures the revolutionary and radical nature of Paul and his Gospel in the 1st century. I will never read Paul's letters in the same way again.

The Rev. Jennifer Michael
St. Timothy Lutheran, Hendersonville, TN

This trip greatly expanded my knowledge of Paul's journeys. I have been able to practice new ways of reading Paul and talking about him and the whole bible. This trip was not just a gift to me, but also a gift to the way I will be a leader in the church.

The Rev. Tim Wrenn
Prince of Peace Lutheran, Dublin, OH

The "Search for Paul" was transformative for me. Understanding the Imperial Cult and his context, I now find Paul far more accessible. The experience changed me as a pastor, scholar, and catechist.

The Rev. Brad Fuerst
Lutheran Campus Ministry, Austin, TX

You will not regret going on this trip of a lifetime! I stepped into the 1st century to hear Paul on his own terms as he addressed his communities living in the Roman Empire. I keep learning from this trip. Once you see, you can't unsee.

Rev. Rebecca Breddin
St. John Lutheran, Madison, SD

This trip has impacted my preaching and teaching. I have a better understanding of Paul's letters and the early church. I also gained friendships that will continue to grow. I pray that many others can experience this life changing tour.

The Rev. Paul Malek
St. Paul Lutheran, Ontario, OR

In searching for Paul I found a connection to the early church through the food, people I met, and the stones that made the scriptures as relevant today as they were at the time they were written. It was an amazing spiritual journey for me.

Deaconess Colleen Teeuw
Prince of Peace Lutheran, Gillette, WY

To explore the places where Paul visited and the places to which he wrote letters was absolutely amazing. I now appreciate the context of the Roman Empire on Paul's writings.

The Rev. Tonya Eza
Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran, Clay, NY

This trip was the capstone to previous visits to the Holy Land and Rome. Our readings and the journey gave me a new perspective on how "radical" Paul was for his time. This perspective is bringing new life to my ministry. I highly recommend this trip!

The Rev. Nancy Andrews
Baton Rouge, LA

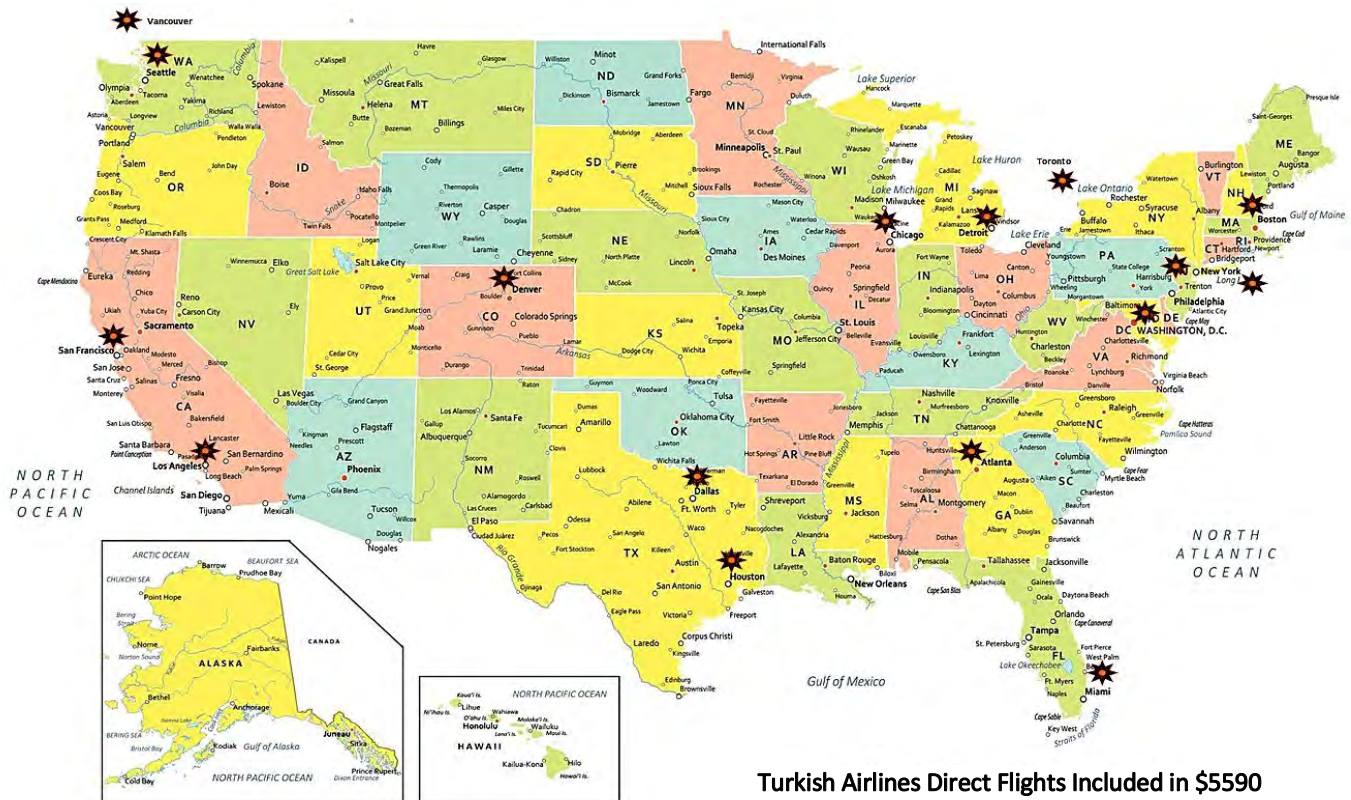

Getting a 1st Century view of the church and Paul's ministry will have an impact on my ministry. I hope the Pauline vision of justice and community will inspire my congregation to reach out to the "God Fearers" in our neighborhood.

The Rev. Pete Lopez
St John Lutheran Church, Angleton, TX

Traveling with LEAD "In Search of Paul" was life changing for me, and experiencing the cities in Greece and Türkiye where Paul shared the Jesus movement was captivating. Many empires fell and turned into ruins, but the powerful Jesus movement lives on!

The Rev. Jenny Sung
Calvary Lutheran, Minneapolis, MN
